The Eureka Award is awarded to divorce professionals, including mental health, financial, and legal professionals. The Eureka Award was established in 2006 and is awarded to only three to five Honorees every year.

“Collaborative Divorce is a humane way to handle divorce cases. The court process can potentially harm children by pitting parents against each other and escalating hostility and tensions,” said Kimberly Madigan. Madigan was recently elected as the new president of Collaborative Practice California at the annual CP-Cal Celebration.

The law firm of Madigan & Lewis, LLP works on all types of family law cases, and strives to handle all matters with integrity and humanity including litigated cases, mediation consulting, and Collaborative Divorce.
