BOCA RATON FLORIDA BUSINESSMAN AND PHILANTHROPIST DEVELOPS THE BEST HOMELESS EFFECTIVE ORGANIZATION IN THE NATION.

James Batmasian, wanted a homeless organization that, keep the homeless off the streets by creating Changing Lives.

The smaller Florida town organization provides 3,120 hours of volunteer services with 320 intakes since 2019, 25 clients were placed in Sober Homes (per month average), 45 clients were employed since 2019. 75 clients were provided with birth certificates, SSN and ID'S and food stamps. Four clients were provided with vehicles, three clients reunited with their families, 5, 250 breakfasts and lunches provided, 1560 showers and 18 tons of clothing collected and distributed.

The difference between this organization and others is that the program lifts the homeless off the streets away from drugs and into independence, employment with housing, and training programs.

It is the goal of Changing Lives, to see this program (that works) implemented across the nation. Anyone wanting to learn more please contact Lesly Morales, the Assistant to Mr. Batmasian at 561-392-8920. Also, see Changing Lives website at www.changinglives.me.
