

Comedian Lori Hamilton creates the one-woman, autobiographical show, North Star Experience Lori's personal journey from hardship to happiness and success live and online May 28, 29, 30 or June 3, 4, 5, 6

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, May 21, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Lori Hamilton's life has been far from glamorous. One of her most recent shows, North Star, charts her journey from an early life with an unhappy, uncaring mother, a father addicted to prescription drugs, followed by a husband who punched holes in walls, through to becoming an award-winning actor, singer and comedian. North Star is an autobiographical show that Lori created in order to share her personal story with the world. The making of North Star has involved many highly creative people. The show is rich with song and many of the contributors are musicians.

It's been very cathartic to act out my life and how I've processed my experience from my childhood to adulthood.”

North Star's world premiere is live and online in a seven-run show with Brighton Fringe, an arts festival in collaboration theSpaceUK at 6pmBST/1pmEDT May 28, 29, 30 and June 3, 4, 5, 6 online. Tickets are available on Brighton Fringe.

North Star is about charting a way through life's tragedies, calamities and pitfalls to eventual happiness. A one-woman show full of insight, humor and song features flawed, quirky and often funny characters including her grandmother and her guardian angel.

“Mum called me ‘the child who ruined my life’ and took a vacation to Hawaii with the money my pain-killer-addicted Dad left me for college. So, it seemed pretty clear I was on my own. North Star is about navigating dysfunctional families, personal tragedies, professional mishaps and lousy lovers. It's not been graceful or elegant, but it's all been very real, and I'm certain that lots of people will find that the songs and the show have strong echoes their own lives.”

Lori hopes using humor to share her own difficulties will give people the courage to face theirs. She has spent years turning her hardships into happiness and success and she wants to inspire others to find the strength to do the same.
