About

Shu Da God is an emerging rapper currently bringing his heavy-hitting anthems to the global stage. Unveiling the truth about the life on streets of America, the stirring artist effortlessly mixes together intelligent lyricism with hard-hitting hooks. The young artist has been writing poetry since he was just five years old and was soon encouraged to meld his poetry with rhythmic compositions, which later resulted in a Rap style.

Having experienced the dangers and obstacles of the dark parts of the city, the budding singer uses his tracks to voice his experiences. To date, Shu da God has released a string of memorable singles such as "Alive" and "Eenie Meanie", fueled by raw and intimate emotions, delivering a hard-hitting narrative. With his versatile musical identity, he hopes to continue producing musical singles, and establish his own record company in the future.
