

Harris and UWS Reaffirm Unique Partnership

TORONTO, ON, CANADA, May 18, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Toronto's Harris Institute and the University of the West of Scotland have reaffirmed a partnership that enables Harris graduates to earn degrees at UWS in 8 months with tuitions waived and UWS students to do international work placements in their field of study in Canada.

"The partnership has been life changing for hundreds of students from both institutions since 2006", says the college's president John Harris. "We are thrilled to extend these unprecedented academic opportunities to future students".

In 2016 the partnership was expanded to permit Harris students who complete both of its programs direct entry into music related Master's Degrees at UWS with partial scholarships.

"Students earn a college diploma from Harris and a degree from UWS in 20 months or two diplomas and an MA in 32 months", says Harris. "This advances our original objective to accelerate the post secondary educational experience".
