Info on Advice Chaser's free educational webinar on divorce finances

Advice Chaser, a service that introduces clients to experienced financial advisors, invited Joseph Okros, JD, MBA to present on this important topic. Joe started his career as a divorce lawyer before moving into the financial industry. His experience gives him a unique perspective into how the divorce process works. In this webinar, he will discuss topics like these:

- The different stages of the divorce process
- Strategies for splitting assets
- How to best manage your remaining assets after the divorce is finished
- Types of professionals you'll likely want to partner with, and why it's not a good idea to have the same professionals as your ex-spouse

- What kinds of investments you could consider based on your age

“Divorce is different for every family, but there are strategies to get through it and make sure you feel comfortable with the final settlement. In the midst of stress and uncertainty, you’ll find valuable tools for self-protection in Joseph Okros’s presentation. His experience as both a lawyer and a financial advisor give Joe extensive experience and empathy for folks who are embarking on a new chapter of life,” said Megan Coelho, President of Advice Chaser.

About Advice Chaser

Advice Chaser is an independent financial concierge service. Our mission is to improve your investment experience by helping you access better financial advice. We listen to your specific needs and goals in order to offer you a custom-tailored connection to reputable advisors. Think of us as a boutique financial dating service.

Unlike other investor-matching services, we do not sell recommendations. Advisors pay to be considered for our select list, but they can’t purchase a place there. We keep only consistently reputable advisors on our shortlist. To see what we can do for your future, see our services here.
