CONSHOHOCKEN, PENNSYLVANIA, USA, May 19, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Miller Bros Solar (MBS) announces its selection by Copenhagen Infrastructure Partners (CIP) to provide operations and maintenance (O&M) services for its Fighting Jays solar project in Fort Bend county Texas.

MBS has been operating the CIP owned, 327MWdc Misae site in Childress county Texas since early 2020, and after Fighting Jays becomes operational in early summer of 2022, MBS will be operating 800MWdc of utility scale solar in Texas for CIP.

Mads Skovgaard Andersen, Partner in Copenhagen Infrastructure Partners says that “CIP is very excited about constructing yet another big solar farm in Texas and engaging MBS as one of CIP’s key service providers for the solar farm.”

Jim Johnston, MBS Director of Utility Operations, noted, “We are really excited to grow our footprint in ERCOT, and look forward to continuing to expand our partnership with CIP in the state, and across the US.”

MBS’ Utility Services division has been rapidly growing since launching in 2019 and will exit 2021 with over 1GWdc of solar projects in ERCOT, MISO, and SERC.
