

The ACLJ Releases Documentary About the Release of Pastor Andrew Brunson, Wrongfully Imprisoned for Two Years in Turkey

"Not Forgotten - The Release of Pastor Brunson" is available for viewing now on ACLJ's official YouTube channel and at MoreThanEver.com.

WASHINGTON, DC, USA, May 19, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The American Center for Law and Justice (ACLJ) has released the new documentary short film, "Not Forgotten - The Release of Pastor Brunson." The short is the first in a brand new limited run series called "ACLJ: More Than Ever," officially launching in June. "Not Forgotten - The Release of Pastor Brunson" is available for viewing now on ACLJ's official YouTube channel and at MoreThanEver.com.

Pastor Andrew Brunson spent more than two years wrongfully imprisoned in Turkey, separated from his family, after more than two decades of Christian ministry in the country.

After relentless advocacy from the ACLJ and diplomatic actions taken by the Trump Administration – including now ACLJ Senior Counsel for Global Affairs Mike Pompeo and ACLJ Senior Advisor for National Security and Foreign Policy Ric Grenell – Pastor Brunson received his freedom and was able to return home to America.

Germany at the time, recalled greeting Pastor Brunson on the tarmac in Germany hours after being freed. "It was incredibly emotional and as he walked down the stairs of that plane, and I was at the bottom of the stairs with an American flag, I had to struggle to keep my emotions intact."

While we celebrate his freedom, we grapple with the reality that with a new Administration in the White House, it may prove to be more difficult to secure the release of captive or imprisoned Christians. That's why the work of the ACLJ is needed now more than ever.
