

Registration is Now Open for SMi Group's Defence Safety 2021 Conference

SMi Group reports: Registration and the agenda is now available for the highly anticipated Defence Safety Conference set to take place in London this October.

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, May 20, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Last year's Defence Safety event boasted a line-up consisting of senior military, safety regulators, operators, and providers, including essential briefings from the UK MoD, showcasing the latest strategies and technologies being used to enhance safety within defence.

Supported by the UK MoD Defence Safety Authority for the fourth year in a row, the 2021 conference taking place on the 4th and 5th October 2021 in London, aims to build on last year's success, which hosted over 280 attendees from 18 nations.

For commercial organisation it is £1499 and for all active government employees it is free to register. There is a £200 early bird saving ending June 30th. Register at <http://www.defencesafety.com/PR1>.

This year's agenda already has an international senior line-up of speakers from over 9 countries who will explore the safe delivery of defence capabilities across the land, air and maritime domains to provide a holistic overview of safety within the military.

The confirmed speakers for this event include:

1. Air Marshal Sue Gray, Director General, Defence Safety Authority, UK MoD

The poster for the Defence Safety 2021 Conference features a central globe composed of various military and defence-related images. The text on the poster includes the event title, dates, location, and supporting organizations.
