

National Drug Screening Recognized as Accredited C/TPA by NDASA

National Drug Screening, Inc. recognized with national accreditation for meeting the highest industry standards in the drug and alcohol testing industry.

MELBOURNE, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, May 20, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The National Drug and Alcohol Screening Association (NDASA), the NDASA Board of Directors, and the Training and Certification Committee has awarded National Drug Screening, Inc. a certificate of accreditation for meeting the highest industry standards as set forth by experts representing all facets of service in the drug and alcohol testing industry. This recognition requires an extensive application process and is reviewed by a committee comprised of industry professionals who assessed responses and practices in the following areas: code of ethics, core competencies, knowledge, and best practices in all areas of provided services and business operations.

We are very pleased to have received this national accreditation. Our team works hard to keep customers compliant with drug testing regulations and to provide them a great customer experience.”

Joe Reilly, President

When asked about this prestigious accreditation, Joe Reilly, President of National Drug Screening, stated “We are very pleased to have received this national accreditation from NDASA. Our team at National Drug Screening works so hard to keep customers compliant with drug testing regulations while providing a great customer experience. I am very proud of our team without whom this national accreditation would not have been possible.” Reilly added, “This national accreditation recognizes our company for going above and beyond regarding regulatory compliance, adherence to industry best practices, ethical standards, and integrity. There are few drug testing providers in the nation to receive this status and we believe that this puts us at the top of the list for a professional third-party administrator (TPA) of drug testing services."

Providers displaying the NDASA Accreditation certificate are providers who have a seal of approval from industry peers and experts demonstrating they are a trusted and reliable partner who is voluntarily subject to accreditation oversight audits and reviews.
