

Interview With Paralympian McKenzie Coan

*She broke 50 bones and a world swimming record.
Then she broke boundaries.*

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, USA, May 20, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- McKenzie Coan is a phenomena. This Georgia native, has brittle bone disorder and is a wheelchair user. But due to her drive and determination, she has carved out a life for herself that many would envy. In August, she will compete in her third Paralympic event in Tokyo and she is one of the highest paid para-swimmers in the world.

Dr. Eugene Emmer said, " I wanted to interview McKenzie because she is truly a pioneer. Only a generation ago, it was difficult or impossible for a woman to have a career as a professional athlete. Only a generation ago, it was difficult or impossible for a person with disabilities to have a career as a professional athlete. In our interview the four time paralympic medal winner explains how she has achieved what few before her could".
