Our sponsors make more than a difference, they make it possible for our successes and for us to be there for our community.”

Chris Yount, 2021 President of the Permian Basin Fair and Exposition

Banners, banner placement, television and radio advertisement inclusion, social media recognition, and website branding and linkage are some of the options sponsorship levels will incur. Several of the attractions or events held during our Fair's run are available for exclusive designated sponsorship. A customize sponsorship package can be crafted to your financial obligation. "For 2021, the Permian Basin Fair and Expo's board and staff are working hard to carrying on the traditions of showing animals, supporting the western lifestyle, promoting creative arts, and being part of our community. Our sponsors make more than a difference, they make it possible for our successes and for us to be there for our community," says Chris Yount, 2021 President of the Permian Basin Fair and Exposition.
