into developing exceptional properties, said Kenjo Ong, CEO of IAA. "Where our efforts and passion helped advance the global infrastructure, through honoring remarkable property design projects and qualified industry professionals, setting a new benchmark for property-related excellence across the industry."

From 31 countries worldwide, including United States, China, Canada, United Kingdom, Germany, Mexico, Denmark, Japan, to name a few, more than 600 entries were nominated, and only the best emerged victorious. Each project was blind judged, by the TITAN jury panel, comprised of distinguished professionals of the international property scene, evaluated on criteria determined by the merits of TITAN Property Awards. The winners were chosen based on the average scores, provided by the jury members.

Throughout the course of this dark chapter in our lives, being a jury for the 2021 TITAN Property Awards has been an exceptional pleasure, with some making their debut as a judge in the
