David Caruso, COO & Co-Founder of deepCBDs said “we’re honored to be a sponsor of Muay Thai Addict’s Triumphant

Muay Thai Addict’s passion for the sport and dedication to help elevate the fighters and Muay Thai throughout the nation is inspirational. We’re pleased to support them with this sponsorship and our line of hemp products to help improve their training, recovery, and balance of their mind and body.”

Muay Thai is the national sport of Thailand and is commonly referred to as Thai boxing. Unlike kickboxing, which is focused on the use of only kicks and punches, Muay Thai combat incorporates the use of eight points of contact – fists, elbows, knees and leg strikes. The practice of Muay Thai embodies a challenge of physical and mental self-control, balance, strategically timed counterattacks, and a deep respect for tradition.

Dmitry Shirganov, President & Founder of Muay Thai Addict said, “I’m excited and happy to have deepCBDs as a sponsor. They genuinely care about the athletes’ quality of life, want to help the athletes shorten their recovery time, and maintain a balanced mind and body in a very demanding sport. Incredible products for incredible athletes.”
