

ATF Medical Taps Reneé Espiritu as Manager of Catastrophic Care

WOODBIDGE, VA, USA, May 24, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Reneé Espiritu has joined ATF Medical, which provides comprehensive medical equipment and adaptive housing solutions to the workers' compensation industry, as Manager of Catastrophic Care. In this newly created position, she coordinates all the medical equipment and supplies along with the adaptive housing needs for seriously injured workers.

"Reneé streamlines the process of acquiring all the specialized medical equipment and home modifications that a complex case needs," explained Rick Wyche, ATF Medical's Director of Business Development. "Adjusters and case managers don't need to coordinate several suppliers. Reneé has the depth of experience and contacts to serve as their single point of contact."

Espiritu has more than 20 years of healthcare experience, 15 in workers' compensation managed care. Most recently she served as Catastrophic Team Lead for MTI America. She previously worked for TechHealth before and after it became a One Call Company.
