

Appliance, Water Heater Leaks & More: Phoenix Water Damage Services helps Property Owners with water damage restoration

A restoration company that is there for you no matter if your water heater is leaking or if you have a washing machine, a refrigerator, or a dishwasher leak

PHOENIX, AZ, UNITED STATES, May 23, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- We take for granted the sense of ease that appliances bring to our busy lives. We do not pay much attention to them when they are working correctly but will understandably become stressed when something goes wrong.

Especially, if what has gone wrong is leaking appliances. This typically is a hidden leak and happens over time from wear and tear, deterioration, corrosion or rust of your appliance hoses or connections.

You may not even realize it until you see visible water damage signs. The following are just a few things to look for:

Wet or discolored spots on the ceiling or walls.

1. Cracking, Flaking or bubbling paint or drywall.
2. Pooling water or puddles.
3. Sounds of running water.
4. Higher monthly utility bills.
5. Musty or moldy odor.

The longer water is allowed to intrude, the more damage it will do to the structure of your property. This also means it will cost you more time in repairs and money. If you suspect your home or office has experienced water damage it is best to call the professionals at Phoenix Water Damage Services immediately.
