Nashville host some of the best wine experiences for any festival of its size. Celebrity sommelier Matthew Lauren will be present on-site to educate and answer all wine-related questions throughout the weekend. Patrons are encouraged to download the MWS app to track their tastings digitally, as well as interacting with wine brands, and other festival attendees. Wine is not complete without a good and the Blended Festival Nashville provides that for its guests. The culinary experience is one of our favorite highlights of Blended, featuring food truck row, and pop-ups from favorite local restaurants. Additionally, Blended showcases local and nationally renowned chefs, performing high-energy crowd demonstrations, and competitions live from our culinary stage. For the ultimate festival fans, there is the Maxim Village which is its' own party, within the party, offering exclusive access for all VIP ticket holders. The Village features a private
