

IDS Wins Top Fintech Solution Provider Honors From Enterprise Viewpoint

Selected from a field of over 300 global fintech providers, IDS takes top honors

MINNEAPOLIS, MINNESOTA, UNITED STATES, May 25, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- IDS, a leading provider of enterprise mission-critical solutions for secured finance has been selected a winner of the Top 20 FinTech Solution Providers 2021 by Enterprise Ventures. IDS was selected after a rigorous evaluation process which included over 300 global fintech software technology firms and was based upon the company's market position, sales momentum and product innovation. IDS joins other notable fintech leaders including Stripe, Fiserv, and OpenFin in receiving this honor.

"IDS is honored to be recognized as a top fintech provider," said David Hamilton, CEO at IDS. "This award adds validation to the significant effort by the IDS team to deliver value to our customer through best-in-class solutions. Ultimately it is our customers who give us the greatest award with their trust and continued business. We appreciate the recognition of our customer-centric focus and the market acknowledgment of our success."

IDS was awarded a top fintech company for its industry leading IDScLOUD platform. IDScLOUD is a 100% SaaS solution which offers the full capability of market leading IDS Rapport® origination and IDS InfoLease® portfolio management solutions along with integrations to an ecosystem of leading third-party services including credit bureaus, e-signature, CRM, sales tax, insurance and payments.

"The Enterprise Viewpoint market research team conducts a detailed analysis of the market to identify the most innovative companies in the fintech market," stated Rahul Chelat, Editor of
