“When we look for partners, we look for someone who understands our ‘why’s’ of using plant-based medicine for optimal wellness,” said Bao Le, CEO of Hhemp.co. “Northeastern Wholesale understood our mission, our diverse products, and our future vision.”

Unlike many CBD products, Hhemp.co’s products contain a blend of both CBD and CBG. CBG+CBD creates an ultra-entourage effect with each compound having its own beneficial properties, but when CBD and CBG are taken together the benefits are amplified.

“We believe Hhemp.co is the premium CBD producer in the market and we’re thrilled that they’ve placed their trust in us to distribute their products into hundreds of stores in Connecticut,” said Syed Bokhari, a partner in Northeastern Wholesale Distributors.
