

A2 Hosting: Web Hosting's Small Business Champion Continues Supportive Actions with Customer Spotlights and Discounts

A2 Hosting Celebrates Small Businesses Globally With Lowest Prices of the Season

ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN, UNITED STATES, May 25, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- In 2021, it's more important than ever for small businesses to get online and improve their digital presence and they need performance and speed without the price tag. A2 Hosting has been running Small Business Month activities throughout all of May, creating business guides, highlighting small businesses around the globe through case studies, and hosting a sale with the lowest prices of the season.

"We wanted to take this month to shine a light on some of our customers and their achievements this last year," said Bryan Muthig, CEO. "We take pride in watching our customers make such positive advancements and we're proud to share how special they are with the world." A2 Hosting interviewed a variety of small businesses including Pyrenees Cycling Company from France, children's author and entrepreneur Katie Davis from Connecticut, architect firm GMH by Design from Colorado, and music producer and e-commerce wiz Gemtracks.com from Australia.

"It was amazing to see people getting on the internet and making the most of their digital presence this last year," Muthig continued. "One of the greatest things about running a hosting company is the ability to help people find more exposure online and create new lead generation paths as their businesses grow and expand."

To wrap up Small Business Month, A2 Hosting is offering support and affordable resources to those who need them. They announced their biggest sale of the year over the weekend
