

Perfect Afternoon for Dining' "With and For" Dogs: Inaugural Moms & Pups "Bark & Brunch" Benefiting Tri-County Animal

125 plus paw-loving advocates recently celebrated pup rescue moms and raise funds at the inaugural Tri-County Animal Rescue Moms & Pups "Bark & Brunch."

BOCA RATON, FLORIDA, USA, May 25, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- More than 125 paw-loving advocates filled the outdoor courtyard at The Addison this weekend to kick off Mother's Day Week by celebrating pup rescue moms and raise funds at the inaugural Tri-County Animal Rescue (TCAR) Moms & Pups "Bark & Brunch." Addressing a timely growing Covid-impacted community wellness need, "Bark & Brunch" proceeds are being directed to TCAR's "Together Fur-ever" Medical Fund that subsidizes low-cost vet care, surgeries, x-rays, ultrasounds, dental care, etc. at TCAR's state-of-the-art, on-campus Lois Pope Clinic for loving pet owners who are experiencing financial difficulties.

In addition to honoring Boca Raton Pup Rescue Moms Marta Batmasian, Andrea Kline and Constance Scott for their long advocacy for pet rescue and support of TCAR, there was plenty of festivities enjoyed by guests, especially the Pup Moms who brought their fur babies to dine with them. There were free-flowing Bloody Mary and Bellini Bars, a delicious doggie buffet, a Mom & Pups Photo Station, Mother's Day boutique gift shopping, a silent auction and pampering swag bags filled with generously donated items from Saks Fifth Avenue, Green Roads and Protect My Shoes as well as pet grooming kits, purse hangers and pairs of pup-themed socks. Among the most anticipated was the winner announcement of the event's Chance-to-win "KARMA Luxury Weekend" that included three-day use of the all-new KARMA Revero GT electric vehicle, two-night stay at The Breakers Palm Beach and dinner at Table 26.

Since there are all types of moms, the TCAR Moms & Pups “Bark & Brunch” fundraiser is well poised to become an annual way to launch Mother’s Day week to celebrate pup moms with proceeds to benefit a timely need.

“Our inaugural event focused on our current ‘Together Fur-ever’ Medical Fund need since TCAR believes that all pets should remain healthy in their homes, not forced to neglect treatable medical and dental issues that can escalate out of control causing unnecessary pain and loss or even surrendered to shelters due to lack of funds,” shared TCAR Board Chair Sharon DiPietro.

As one of the largest regional 100% No-Kill, 501C (3), nonprofit animal shelters, TCAR is dedicated to rescuing, rehabilitating and re-homing unwanted pets in Palm Beach, Broward, and Miami-Dade counties. Since its inception, TCAR, a four-star rated Charity Navigator nonprofit, has saved over 69,000 domestic animals from being euthanized, providing a safe haven until each rescue is given the chance to live the rest of their lives as treasured pets.
