

Consulting Magazine Honors Logic20/20's Lada Kessler

Lada Kessler, Logic20/20, named one of the 2021 Consulting Women Leaders in Technology by Consulting Magazine.

SEATTLE, WA, UNITED STATES, May 25, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Logic20/20, a leading business and technology consulting firm, is proud to announce that Lada Kessler was named among 2021 Consulting Women Leaders in Technology by Consulting Magazine. This annual award honors leaders in technology for excellence in three categories: Leadership, Client Service, and Innovation. Kessler, who was recognized in the Client Services category, is a Lead Software Developer at Logic20/20.

"This recognition is well-deserved," says Lionel Bodin, Senior Director at Logic20/20. "Lada consistently drives towards excellence and has developed invaluable solutions for our clients. She proves herself as a leader day in and day out and truly is a leader in technology."

Kessler was named to this list for her impact on Logic20/20 and the solutions the firm provides for their clients. She influences large architecture decisions and advises clients on strategy. Kessler is leading a development team that is responsible for about 70 microservices and works across technologies including Java, Spring Boot, AWS, Kafka, Kubernetes, Node.js, Angular.js, and more. She is consistently ensuring that the team follows best practices and delivers quality solutions on time.

"I am so grateful to Consulting Magazine for shining a light on the contributions of women who are shaping the future of our industry," says Kessler. "I believe in a future where everyone has equal opportunity in life and the freedom to choose the career path that excites them and

Consulting Magazine launched the Women Leaders in Technology Awards in 2007. This award is a part of their long-standing commitment to honoring the contributions made by women in the consulting profession. The individuals named to the list were recognized for the impact they have on their organizations and the community.
