Until now. The Total Toolbox is a one-stop shop for interior and exterior home repair, maintenance, and installation needs.

The company was started by a master craftsman and general contractor with over 40 years of experience in the home building and remodeling industry who recognized the challenge that homeowners face making minor repairs. Whether it's a leaky toilet, patching drywall, or even installing an EV charging station in the garage, The Total Toolbox provides trained, insured, and licensed professionals to tackle everything on your honey-do list.

Recently, the company launched its new website (<https://www.thetotaltoolbox.com/handyman-home-repair-services>), and is proud to offer services to homeowners in Montgomery, Chester, Bucks, and Delaware Counties in Pennsylvania.
