

Understanding The Social Equity Cannabis License Rules

Free public webinar to help prospective social equity applicants seeking one of 26 cannabis licenses.

PHOENIX, AZ, UNITED STATES, May 26, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Arizona Cannabis Chamber of Commerce is holding a public webinar on June 16 at 5:30 p.m. to discuss why expungement is a critical topic for any social equity applicant.

The current Arizona draft rules place expungement front and center to the application process. Our panel will dive into the details about expungement and how it will factor into being awarded one of the 26 social equity licenses. Our panelists will also discuss how the industry can influence The Arizona Department of Health Services to create an even more robust social equity program.

Khadijah Adams, CEO of Girl Get That Money and a member of the NCIA Diversity Committee will moderate the panel. Confirmed panelists include:

Tom Dean - Attorney & Founder at Attorney for Cannabis
George W. Biederman - Attorney & Partner at Biederman Law
Janet Jackim - Attorney & Partner at Zuber Lawler
Gary Smith - Attorney & Partner at Guidant Law
Seun Adedji - CEO and Owner of Elev8 Dispensary
Mike Robinette - Southern Arizona Executive Director, AZ NORML

The public can register for the webinar at https://zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_CmbZWv3-Q42tzLgdIpNmQO

Thomas Dean- NORML National Legal Committee Lifetime Member
