Enerkon Solar International (ENKS) Holding company considers replacing ASJH & Co. Accountants after Diligence on ASJH - new firm to be chosen this week

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, USA, May 26, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Enerkon Solar International (ENKS) Holding company considers replacing ASJH & Co. Accountants after Diligence on ASJH - new firm to be chosen this week

In 2016, the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board ("PCAOB" or "the Board") conducted an inspection of the registered public accounting firm AJSH & Co. LLP ("the Firm") pursuant to the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 ("the Act") non public determinations were made and our diligence was negative as to the output quality being considered as lower than the market may accept for valid audit results even though they may COMPLY with the Listing requirements of the NASDAQ we wish to have a more robust firm and audit output for market and public consumption as well as for our own administration success.

Enerkon Holdings - Family of companies Bringing you value and innovation through new technology and energy resources”

Mr. Benjamin Ballout CEO

Therefore, ENKS has decided to terminate the signed engagement agreements with their firm and replace them with another more robust firm this week

The Engagement agreements with both, their firm and Berkowitz, our Audit Advisers, are posted on the the company website, in document tab #3 for reference.

In other news, the company will issue news Monday, with regards to the second buy back phase,

Building Utility Scale PV Plants Across Africa and the World

for Restricted common stock and thereafter another public offer, to buy Free Trading shares, within the regulations and rules that permit share buy backs, from the open market shareholders.

This buy Back strategy we hope, shall allow the company to have a PPS elevated to reach the minimum, for listing required by the NASDAQ markets , without having to resort to a reverse split, for which the company will not do and will not, entertain.
