With a formula free of irritating chemical ingredients, HH Herb & Health's line is ideal for pregnant women, who are especially prone to irritation, smelly vagina, and vagina itch.

Designed with vaginal health in mind, HH Herb & Health's products contain various natural plant-derived ingredients. parabens, SLS/SLES, soaps, alcohols, chemical fragrances, and other harmful ingredients that can prove incredibly irritating for pregnant women. Acting as a natural deodorant, HH Herb & Health's sprays contain lactic acid, yeast extract, yogurt extract, and radish root ferment filtrate.

"I'm six months pregnant and ever since receiving my order, I've been extremely satisfied with the results," says Ariadne Zehcnas. "It is the perfect feminine wash for me, as it clears the vagina odor and makes me feel refreshed all day. It's definitely something I look forward to using every day, and it's worth every penny!"

Unlike other whitening serums that contain harsh chemicals, HH Herb & Health's serum is composed of natural ingredients such as Ester-C (the lightening agent) alongside jojoba oil, aloe vera extract, rosehip oil, and more. These ingredients work together to restore elasticity, lock in moisture, and prevent vaginal dryness. Its hypoallergenic design is perfect for sensitive groups, including pregnant women.

HH Herb & Health is also thrilled to share the final product in its new series of herbal feminine products—an antibacterial and anti-mildew hand-wash for female panties. Utilizing a neutral pH7 detergent, it protects the hands while penetrating even the most difficult menstrual and vagina discharge stains. Ingredients like vitamin B5 and aloe extract allow this formula to be highly effective yet non-irritating.
