

"Bella de Morire" wins the PeaceJam Special Jury Prize at the 60th annual Monte Carlo TV Festival

To be presented during the prestigious Golden Nymph Award Ceremony

MONTE CARLO, MONACO, June 1, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The PeaceJam Foundation is happy to announce the winner of the 4th Annual PeaceJam Special Jury Prize. This year's winner is the television miniseries, "Bella Da Morire," and this prestigious prize will be presented during the gala Golden Nymph Awards Ceremony at the 60th Festival de Monte Carlo de Television on June 22, 2021.

The purpose of the PeaceJam Special Jury Prize is to recognize outstanding television programming that embodies the spirit of the Nobel Peace Prize. The PeaceJam Special Jury Prize adds a unique new humanitarian component to the Television Festival every year.

“

Our jury members were very moved by "Bella Da Morire," and strongly support its message regarding femicide and the ongoing epidemic of violence against women which continues to occur around the world.”

Dawn Gifford Engle

The prestigious list of Jury members tasked with selecting the awardee includes Her Royal Highness Princess Camilla of Bourbon-Two Sicilies, Duchess of Castro who is designated as the Monaco Representative to the Jury by HSH Prince Albert II of Monaco; Pierre-Edouard Coursault, Representative of the Monte Carlo TV Festival; Genie Godula, Anchor at France 24; Raquel Bruno, President of Drive Entertainment Group; Chiara Sbarigia, General

Director, APT, Associazione Produttori Televisivi; Calypso de Sigaldi, VP, AIDA, Association Internationale D'actions Artistiques, and Dawn Gifford Engle and Ivan Suvanjiëff, Co-Founders of the PeaceJam Foundation.

In "Bella Da Morie," produced in 2020 by Rai Fiction, award-winning actress Cristina Capotondi takes on the beautifully crafted role of Police Inspector Eva Cantini in this new drama from Cattleya. Eva is a strong female lead who crushes prejudices, including her own. Set against the beautiful and mysterious backdrop of the Italian Lakes, "Bella Da Morie" takes on the topical issue of prejudice and violent crimes against women, simply because they are women.

"Our jury members were very moved by "Bella Da Morire," and strongly support its message regarding femicide and the ongoing epidemic of violence against women which continues to occur around the world," said Dawn Gifford Engle, President of the Special Jury.

Accepting the award on behalf of the film will be Producer Marco Chimenz of Cattleya Productions. Marco joined Cattleya as a partner in 1999. One of the firms' managing directors, he is responsible for developing new business strategies and partnerships, focusing in particular on relationships with other producers, distributors, and foreign financiers. He is actively involved in the company's key decision-making, especially concerning television series aimed at the international market. Before his arrival in Cattleya, he was responsible for the international sale of fiction TV for Mediaset in Milan, and later, as Executive Vice President for Medusa Film in Los Angeles. Since May 2015, he is also president of the European Producers Club, an association of more than one hundred of Europe's most important film and TV cinema producers.

Dawn Engle
PeaceJam Foundation
+1 303-961-3184
email us here

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/542574296>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2021 IPD Group, Inc. All Right Reserved.