"If that first game hadn't gone two minutes, it could have been 53, maybe 54," said the new world record holder right after the event.

Stella Artois is celebrating the achievement with commemorative chess chalices featuring Hikaru's signature, while supplies last.

It was the first time that Stella Artois, a Belgian beer brand, worked with a chess streamer on Twitch. A Stella representative expressed gratitude and joy about this first cooperation with Chess.com in a message to the Chess.com team that had arranged all the work behind the scenes.

"Stella Artois making a move into chess is an unexpected, yet perfect, match," said Lara Krug, vice president of marketing for Stella Artois.

"This was our first--hopefully of many-- events with them," added Austin Gasparini, Chess.com Director of Business Development.
