Haslam (Renaissance) as guest artist, and the holiday single, "This Winter's Child," which was composed for the MRR Holiday album.

In March 2020 they went on tour with MRR labelmate Joe Deninzon & Stratospheerius, and Dark Beauty. They were also invited to participate in several online festivals, including The Uncancelled Music Festival (April), The WorldWide Prog and Rock Virtual Festival (May), and the ProgStock Presents Festival. (August).

In October 2020, Potter's Daughter released their Covid Quarantine EP, "Casually Containing Rage." The single from the EP, "We Could Be," was released as a video, directed by filmmaker Serena Kunzler.

In December 2020, Potter's Daughter was featured in the Limelight section of Prog Magazine, and in the same edition, voted #2 in the Reader's Poll Unsigned Band Category.

In February 2021, Potter's Daughter enjoyed the privilege of participating in the debut release (Pyrrha's Song) for Nick Katona's "Troubleshooting Pandora's Box," together with drummer Jimmy Keegan.

In April 2021, Potter's Daughter's music video, "We Could Be," was chosen as a finalist to compete in the annual American Golden Picture International Film Festival.

They are scheduled to open the prestigious music festival, Prog On the Ranch, (Florida) this October.

Now, joining forces with the world-renowned drummer, Simon Phillips, they plan to release their heaviest work to date. The Artwork for the album cover was created especially for this project by the master artist, Armand Cabrera.

"It has been an absolute pleasure to play on your music. Very challenging and ever so much fun."
- Simon Phillips (drummer with Protocol, Toto, Hiromi, Mike Oldfield, The Who, Jeff Beck etc)

Say Dyanne and Jan-Christian of Potter's Daughter, "The huge contribution of Simon's playing to our music, together with the depth of his artistry and vision simply cannot be understated or exaggerated. He added a completely new dimension to each song. He is also down to earth, such a joy to work with!"

"...just beautiful...I love your voice, and chord progressions are sublime" - Jon Anderson (lead singer of progressive rock band, Yes)

"On first hearing of Blood and Water I was struck by its unusual and haunting melody and Dyanne's exquisite voice. To be a part of it was truly a wonderful experience." - Annie Haslam (Lead singer of progressive rock band, Renaissance)
