

Leading Orthopaedic Group Partners with Radix Health to Launch Self-Scheduling Practice-Wide

Rollout Enhances Patient Experience and Scheduling Efficiencies

ATLANTA, GA, US, June 7, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Radix Health, a leading provider of patient access and scheduling technologies, announces the launch of mobile-optimized patient self-scheduling for Rothman Orthopaedic Institute, a world leader in orthopaedics with offices in Greater Philadelphia, New Jersey, New York Metro, and Central Florida.

“As Rothman Orthopaedics continues to expand, we are consistently looking for ways to improve the patient experience, and we are pleased to launch online scheduling with Radix Health on our platforms,” says Alexander R. Vaccaro, M.D., Ph.D., MBA, President of Rothman Orthopaedic Institute, Richard H. Rothman Professor and Chairman of the Department of Orthopaedics, and Professor of Neurosurgery at Thomas Jefferson University and Hospitals. “We understand our patients value convenience so allowing them 24/7 access to online scheduling will enable more people the opportunity to make appointments during business hours or after.”

“Rothman Orthopaedics is a best-in-class example of putting the patient experience first while also working to make things easier for their team. We’re excited to help them take this next step to not only streamline scheduling but empower their patients to schedule on any device at any time easily and quickly,” shares Arun Mohan, MD, (Co-Founder and CEO of Radix Health). “This also creates additional opportunity to more easily acquire new patients and get them seen by a provider more quickly. The partnership with Rothman and the collaboration between our teams to make everything run smoothly behind the scenes for patients scheduling online is also inspiring.”

According to an Accenture survey, over two-thirds (68%) of consumers said they’d be more likely to choose a provider with whom they can book, change, and cancel appointments online. This robust self-scheduling offering empowers Rothman patients to book appointments at any location with any of their 178 providers 24/7. Last year as Covid-19 hit the country hard, Rothman launched self-scheduling capabilities for telemedicine appointments with Radix.

Providing seamless online scheduling to a large database of patients required carefully assessing scheduling workflows, something the Radix team collaborated closely with Rothman’s team to execute.
