

CareAdvisors to Present at Ohio Social Worker Event

Breakout Session to Focus on Constricted Access to Social Services

CHICAGO, IL, UNITED STATES, June 4, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- "An Urgent Means Project - Addressing Ohio's Constricted Access to Social Services During a Pandemic" is the title of a featured session at the first annual conference held by the National Association of Social Workers - Ohio Chapter, Region 2. CareAdvisors' Senior Community Engagement Manager Brielle Osting, AM, MPP, will co-present the topic with Dr. Mutajah "Taj" Hussein, DSW, JD, LSW, an infectious disease behavioral health manager at MetroHealth.

"We surveyed clinical social workers in Ohio this year and have learned more about their evolving challenges in the face of the pandemic," Osting shared. "There has been a significant shift in both social service needs and access, and we will be sharing this information in the conference breakout session."

Scheduled for Friday, June 11, the virtual conference will be held from 9 a.m. to 4:15 p.m. EST. Interested healthcare professionals can find registration information at care-advisors.com.
