“Choosing a plant-based diet over a meat-based diet can cut down your risk of heart disease, cancer and type-2 diabetes (integrisok)". Plant-based meat uses 47 percent–99 percent less land than conventional meat. Plant-based meat uses 72%–99% less water than conventional meat. "Government has always chosen the winners and losers. We will choose to give meat and dairy subsidies to plant based industries", said Ernest. Zoom login information will be posted to www.taylorforcalifornia.com June 7, 2021.
