

5 Ways for Physicians to Invest Wisely: A Free Educational Webinar

To learn more about investing strategies tailored specifically for physicians, join this free educational webinar.

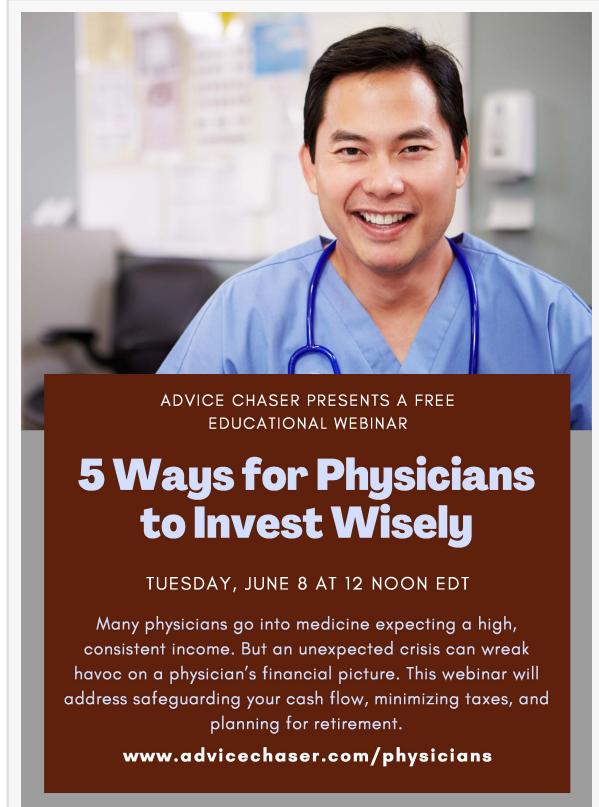

NEW YORK CITY, NEW YORK, USA, June 8, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Being a physician can come with a high income, but it also comes with many risks. Significant student debt and malpractice insurance mean you may get a late start on investing, and any financial mishaps could be disastrous. To learn more about investing strategies tailored specifically for physicians, join this free educational webinar. The webinar, hosted by Advice Chaser, will premiere on June 8 at 12:00 noon Eastern time. Be sure to reserve your spot for the webinar here.

Advice Chaser, a service that provides financial education and introductions to skilled and experienced financial advisors, will host the webinar. We invited Chris Hunter, CFP® and Personal Investment Advisor, to be the keynote speaker. Chris's wealth management philosophy is that wealth represents so much more than money; it's a representation of your passion and hard work. In this webinar, he'll share insights and expertise on:

- Five specific strategies to consider when investing early in your medical career
- Current global market trends and consumer savings rates
- What long-dated yields in stocks mean for investments and asset reallocation
- An equity watch list to inform your investing strategies
- Potential changes in the tax code and what those changes could mean for fixed-income payouts on investments

"Chris has a long-term view of financial health that takes into account many different global and industry factors," said Megan Coelho, President of Advice Chaser. "Physicians face a unique set of challenges when it comes to planning for investments, and Chris is passionate about educating people about their options."

If you're a physician or other healthcare professional, you may not be able to rely on a high income to solve all your financial problems. To get personalized advice on how you can start investing and pay down your student debt, you can talk to a financial advisor. Advice Chaser can connect you with a financial advisor who has experience planning with clients in situations like yours. Book a quick free phone call here.
