

Announcing Deconstructing Comp: a New Podcast

A new podcast, Deconstructing Comp with Yvonne Guibert and Rafael Gonzalez, aims to peel back the layers of workers' compensation, one conversation at a time.

TAMPA, FL, UNITED STATES, June 8, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In Deconstructing Comp, seasoned workers' compensation professionals, Yvonne Guibert of Guibert Services, LLC and Rafael Gonzalez, Esq. of Cattie & Gonzalez, PLLC collaborate to bring a new podcast focused on the workers' compensation industry at large. In a curious, fun and guest-focused season, Yvonne and Rafael chat with industry experts to peel back the layers of the complex workers' compensation industry, one person, one conversation at a time.

This 12-episode season launched on June 8, 2021, and aims to navigate the complex workers' comp industry by getting to know different professionals by discussing their career experiences. Discussions are focused on guests, learning more about their specific career path, their unique insights, and a few nuggets of wisdom for other professionals and newcomers to the industry. Each episode encourages listeners to show up, dig deep and just do the right thing, which usually involves advocating for injured workers. Listeners will discover each guest has forged a meaningful career out of being curious, striving to lead by example, and following the simple mindset of treating people with kindness and compassion.
