“We are thrilled to introduce Imbue Botanicals to more of our member pharmacies, providing them an opportunity to capitalize on a fast-growing market segment.” said Dr. Brian Oliveira, Executive Director for GSPO. “As a pharmacist and pharmacy owner I have a great affinity for Imbue. I have seen first-hand the incredible impact it has had on my patients and family members alike. We prioritized a patient-focused product line with a strong track record in the independent pharmacy market. But above all, we wanted to provide our pharmacists and patients the absolute finest hemp CBD products available. I know we've found that in Imbue Botanicals.

"We're thrilled to be part of such a forward-thinking group," said Tom Bauer, Managing Partner for Imbue Botanicals. "New Jersey has been a key market for us for the past several years and we're delighted to increase our footprint in the Garden State.
