

Atsushi Onita is Back with His Explosion Match on July 4th

Atsushi Onita makes the announcement of his comeback explosion match on July 4th, 2021. Live broadcast of the game will be telecasted at 12.00 PM Japan Time.

YOKOHAMA, JAPAN, June 11, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Frontier Martial-Arts Wrestling has experienced many surprises in its long span. The promotion specializes in hardcore wrestling involving weapons such as barbed wire and fire.

Atsushi Onita, the founder of the explosion match, is back. On July 4th, 2021, Atsushi Onita will perform an explosion match using a large number of explosives. The live broadcast of the match will be held on July 4th, 2021, starting at 12:00 PM Japan time. The live feed will be available for purchase from the US and will 1000 yen.

The title of the match is decided to be "Death match of Hell". The followings will take place there:

- Barbed wire barricade landmines explosion×8
- Barbed wire rope explosion×2
- Barbed wire baseball bat explosion×2
- This is a new weapon to the table explosion.

In the year 2021, Onita made the announcement that he would be beginning the Frontier Martial-Arts Wrestling-Explosion. This is the promotion that was under the FMW name. This specialized in the exploding death matches. This is a match type where Onita became exceptionally well known. Onita stated that he had the idea for this promotion, having seen the All Elite Wrestling's 2021 Revolution PPV. There the event had an exploding barbed wire death match. Having seen that, he understood that there was a market still for these kinds of matches in the international arena of the pro-wrestling world. So he formed the promotion taking help of
