I'm so excited to join forces with AirPlay Direct for my 'Touchstones' album project. I have worked with them on many albums in the past & it's a wonderful platform to extend the reach of my music.”

David Starr, Independent Artist - Songwriter - Producer

During a year where COVID-19 stopped the world in its tracks, Starr took time to reflect on and experience anew the music that shaped his own. Many of the songs he chose to record he describes as "musical comfort food".

"I am so excited to join forces with AirPlay Direct for my 'Touchstones' album project," said David Starr, Independent Artist / Songwriter / Producer. "I have worked with them on many albums in the past and it is such a wonderful platform to extend the reach of my music.

In the midst of quarantine, I wanted to get back to some of the songs that first inspired my love of music, and experience them in a new way. Some of the songs were lyrically inspiring, some were songs I'd played in bands over the years. Some just felt good to sing and play. Others brought back fond memories or a kind of familiar melancholy. There's even one new original song in the mix!"

Starr continues to say, "I've been releasing one single a month leading up to a full album release this October. It's been a fun ride and I hope to reach even more listeners with AirPlay Direct!"
