About the Company

Hollywood Lace was founded by a group of hair system toupee wearers who were dissatisfied with the extensive amount of time it took to order and receive their hair pieces, the lack of professional customer service, and the inconsistent quality of the toupees received. As a result of their experiences, they made the decision to invest in a hair toupee manufacturer of their own – giving them the ability to control the quality, customer care, production time, and cost.

With the support of innovative people in the industry, Hollywood Lace was able to develop its premium hairpieces and trademark Invisible Knots Hair System.
