Delphic Games will connect the people of all regions and help Indian Economy by promoting tourism in the country.

NEW DELHI, DELHI, INDIA, June 14, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Mr. Bijender Goel - a Former Special Representative to Jharkhand (Cabinet Minister Rank), Former Adviser to Union Labour and Employment Minister, Government of India, Chairman of the National Council on Disaster management, ASSOCHAM, Member, Governing Council of Bir Tikendrajit University, Manipur and known for introducing earthquake onsite early warning technology in South Asia; has been nominated as the Founding President of the Indian Delphic Council (INDC) to head the Indian movement.

He is also Advisor of the South Asian Affairs of the International Delphic Council.

The International Delphic Council (IDC) is a voluntary, not-for-profit, non-political, nonreligious global organization that works to foster harmony amongst people through engagements in the various Arts forms and the Cultural identities that manifest them, through the Delphic Games.

The ancient history of the Delphic Games traces its roots back to Delphi in Greece 2500 years ago as the twin-sister of the Olympic Games. The Delphic Games are to Arts & Cultures what Olympic Games are to physical sports. While the Delphic Games of the Modern Era were revived in 1994, the Olympic Games were revived in 1894.

Since revival, the Delphic Games have been hosted in Georgia, Russia, Malaysia, South Korea, Philippines, Germany and South Africa while Delphic Summits, Delphic Art Wall initiatives and other festivals of cultural significance have been organised elsewhere in the world. International
