

AGC Georgia Awards Contractors for Safety Excellence

Numerous firms receive honors at the local and national level

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, UNITED STATES, June 15, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- As the leading association for the construction industry in Georgia and at the national level, the Associated General Contractors of Georgia (AGC Georgia) and the Associated General Contractors of America (AGC of America) annually partner to recognize firms for safety excellence. Twenty-four Georgia-based construction firms were honored for their dedication to safety throughout the 2020 calendar year.

"Georgia is honored to have so many contractors who instill workplace safety throughout every project," said AGC Georgia CEO Mike Dunham. "We are thrilled to recognize these firms for their unwavering commitment to fostering a culture focused on safety. I know we'll witness more firms excel to these standards in the coming years thanks to our members' efforts towards teaching jobsite best practices."
