ORLANDO, FL, UNITED STATES, June 15, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Today, Florida Honey Pot Farms, a woman-owned and operated company producing artisanal honey, re-introduced itself to the market with its unique approach to wellness honey products. Crafted fresh from its home state, Florida Honey Pot Farms offers both CBD-infused and CBD-free honey packed with nutritious ingredients that can naturally and safely address common ailments including anxiety, inflammation and pain.

Of the company's exciting offerings, founder Renee Kirwan commented, "Honey is our oldest superfood and, along with modern plant medicine, we have successfully crafted an all-natural option for consumers looking for a natural sweetener that promotes health and well-being."

Renee Kirwan, Founder of Florida Honey Pot Farms

As a woman farmer, Kirwan recognized a need for all-natural pain relief that was both safe and effective. Understanding that honey is considered the original superfood, has both nutritional and therapeutic benefits, and is naturally delicious, she founded Florida Honey Pot Farms to share this special line-up of honey with the world. Some of the company's best-selling products include:

- Bee Chill Honey (CBD-infused)
- Bee Fluid Honey (CBD-infused)
- Bee Immune Terpene-enhanced Honey (Non-CBD)

To date, Florida Honey Pot Farms has crafted six winning formulas that address everything from focus, relaxation, immunity to pain and inflammation. The wellness honey is meant to be used interchangeably, depending on how you are feeling that day. Following its mantra, "Quality in Every Bottle," the company has sold thousands of pounds of honey in their elegant soft touch packaging to savvy consumers seeking the newest in effective and innovative health supplements.
