Lady Peachena, the Grammy Award-winning songwriter of smash-hit song, "Dancing In The Spirit," has just released another gem. This Bluesy-Gospel tune, "DON'T MESS WITH MISS STACEY!" magnifies the courageous efforts of Georgia's voting rights organizer, Stacey Abrams, whose grassroots, organizing skills with her Fair Fight Organization changed Georgia from a red state to a blue state last Nov. 4, 2020. Stacey's commendable work was rewarded with the overwhelming defeat of two Republicans and the election of two Democrats, Jon Ossoff & Rev. Raphael Warnock. Incredible mission accomplished!

Lady Peachena has been gifted with a unique ability to write songs about celebrities like "OPRAH, QUEEN OF TALK TV" about Oprah Winfrey, "I WANNA PLAY LIKE SERENA!" about tennis great, Serena Williams, "LORD, PLEASE GUIDE OUR PRESIDENT," remixed for the presidency of President Obama, and "RUN, HILLARY, RUN," about Hillary Clinton. Surely, she hopes that "DON'T MESS WITH MISS STACEY" will become the theme song for Ms. Abrams & the Democratic Party.

In October 1995, Lady Peachena founded the famed Late Show's Gospel Choir for CBS TV's "LATE SHOW WITH DAVID LETTERMAN," and they sang on "THE LATE SHOW" for 10 years straight (1995-2005). This awesome choir has sung on several other TV shows like "MTV UNPLUGGED," "INSIDE EDITION," & "IMPRACTICAL JOKERS." In 2010, Lady Peachena was the only female Gospel singer to ever direct her choir and lead them singing her smash-hit song, "DANCING IN THE SPIRIT" on Showtime's "THE BIG C." In 2013, she sang in a cameo role on Spike Lee's movie, "DA SWEET BLOOD OF JESUS." Lady Peachena & The Great Divas of Gospel, starred as singing angels

I'm truly amazed by tremendous legacy of Miss Stacey Abrams who turned a ruthless defeat into a powerful victory motivating millions of people to vote!"

Lady Peachena is also the playwright of the long-running off Off-Broadway musical,

"The Great Divas of Gospel," which gives a powerful tribute to the female pioneers of Gospel music: The Clara Ward Singers, The Famous Caravans, Sister Rosetta Tharpe, Mahalia Jackson, and others.
