Everything|Wiki does not belong to individual persons or companies, but to anyone who wants to be a part of the community. Everything|Wiki is the upgraded version of Wikipedia and other encyclopedias, which also allows reporting on other public persons or small companies. With Everything|Wiki, there are no restrictions, as long as they are morally and legally justifiable. All visitors to this site have the opportunity to inform themselves about anyone and anything, and thus protect themselves. There is no one-sided reporting, and the community can help shape the contributions themselves to provide an optimal platform.

Benefits for moderators:

General benefits for the whole community:

- FREE membership
- You can also park the coin on Everything|Wiki and earn profit. Thus, all coin holders will additionally participate in the platform's revenues for holding the coin.
- With surplus revenue, Everything|Wiki will buy the distributed coins back from the market and will partially burn them to create a shortage of the coin, which will then keep the price stable or increase the value.
- The faster you start, the more coins you get, because we pay higher for article creation in the beginning.

Join now and get paid as a moderator in any language you like, or become a community member and get a share of the revenue.
