-- Joining Fueled By Verge is UpgradeMG Managed fighter, Reena Norville. Our 115 lb pocket dynamo ready to light up the MMA scene after a faultless amateur career.

Whilst Reena gained a scholarship at Gonzaga University, Spokane, Washington studying Psychology and Criminal Justice, she earned a walk-on spot on the Soccer team at both Varsity and Freshman level. But she suffered a devastating on-field injury. A blown-out knee brought her soccer skills to a sudden halt.

We are excited to have Reena join the Fueled by Verge Movement. We are looking forward to working with the Team and scaling out to a whole new audience within the Verge Currency $XVG community.”

Graduating in 2010 during the recession wasn't ideal, as Reena struggled to find a job, picking up waitressing work where she could whilst recovering. Her stepdad got her a general contractor internship with a construction company in Phoenix, Arizona. This then took her to various places in the States and abroad including the UK, Israel, Germany, Holland, Spain, and Turkey.

Reena has never been one to allow challenges to get in the way of continuing to improve her life. Her passion for making her sports career success comes from a childhood dotted with trials and tribulations, which instilled a belief in herself, rooted in overcoming adversity in life. Reena had to deal with family troubles and severe depression, building strength and self-belief, which has grown and she has channeled into a competitive edge that has given Reena the drive and ambition to become the best in her class.

On returning to the US, she decided she didn't want to put pressure on her knee in returning to soccer but wanted to return to sports, so she joined a gym and got turned on to Kick Boxing. She loved it so much she dedicated herself to becoming good enough to compete. This manifested itself into becoming the MMA Amateur California State Champion as well as the Spar Star Promotions winner.

A 4-0 amateur start encouraged Reena to go Pro and she has embarked on her professional career. The step-up from Amateur to Professional has been significant, and although Reena clearly battered her last opponent, a points decision went against her, and Reena sits 0-2 to date, readying herself for her first official win.

We know Reena will achieve this, just as she has everything else in her life to date.

Reena is managed by a professional consulting service, UpgradeMG. Welcome Reena, we are delighted to have you fighting for our team.
