Scott Whiting, Manager, Airline Systems and Integration, Sunwing Airlines permutations. The Ascension Vacancies and Vacations Bidding System allowed Sunwing to digitally transform its bidding processes, providing extremely flexible and configurable bid management with efficient and intuitive crew interfaces that make bid generation, submittal and management easy. All of this is supported by a powerful administrative platform allowing easy configuration, precise auditing and tracking and complete management visibility.

"ProVerne has been an essential partner in providing this important functionality to our crew members over the years," said Scott Whiting, Manager, Airline Systems and Integration for Sunwing Airlines. "They have worked with us to configure Ascension to accommodate some highly complex tools while helping build confidence among our crew. We were as impressed by ProVerne's commitment and support as we were with Ascension's capabilities. We are pleased to extend the partnership and look forward to continuing to grow and innovate together."

Mangesh Adgaonkar, CEO of ProVerne Solutions said: "We are humbled by Sunwing's contract extension and the faith they have shown in our products and people. We look forward to growing our relationship with them to provide even more innovative solutions in near future"

Clay Springer, ProVerne Solutions Chief Commercial Officer said: "Our work with Sunwing showcases the power and flexibility of Ascension tools, and the collaborative working approach that consistently creates solutions that exceed expectations. Working closely with Sunwing's management and Pilot groups, we have created a powerful Vacancy and Vacations bidding suite that will grow with them well into the future".
