LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, June 25, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Merv Pinny releases his latest single titled “When I See Your Face”. The adult contemporary track was recorded in New Zealand, mixed in Australia, and mastered in the USA by multi-Grammy Award engineers Greg Calbi and Steve Fallone.

“When I See Your Face” highlights Merv’s smooth vocal side, as a pleasant addition to his rock library.

Merv was inspired to create “When I See Your Face” after over a year of lockdowns. Isolation and closed borders only increased everyone’s desire to travel and see loved ones. Finally, as things are opening back up, Merv captures the joy many families are experiencing all over the world.

When creating the “When I See Your Face” music video, Merv got direction from New Zealand’s music guru the late Dylan Tait. The video has a vintage look as Merv and his team recreated a true story.

“When I See Your Face Now” is available now on all major platforms. Visit Merv Pinny’s website for more information.
