

Fran Briggs Presents The Best of Summer Reading, 2021

List Includes Authors from the U.S.A., Asia, and the U.K.

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, June 23, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- If there is one thing readers love more than reading books in the summer, it is the list that highlights some of the best of summer reading. Award-winning journalist, Fran Briggs recently released The Best of Winter Reading, 2021.

"The Best of Winter Reading is organized by author, a short synopsis of their book, and a link for additional information and purchase," explained Fran Briggs. "Readers can look forward to charming, thoroughly-developed plots, tear-jerking and empowering themes. Genres include mystery, children's, humor, sci-fi, and romance."

Briggs added that the fiction and nonfiction selections showcase originality, creativity, impact, originality, influence, and quality.

"Summer just got better. With every book, the pages will turn quickly. These are remarkable reads by master storytellers," she concluded.

Below are the 10 picks. The numerical order does not coincide with ranking.
