

W420 Radio Network Announces Guest Interview Series with New Frontier Data Cannabis Industry Experts

SAN FRANCISCO, CA, UNITED STATES, June 24, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- W420 Radio Network, the first and most listened-to virtual radio station dedicated to "America's Cannabis Conversation," and its host, Dan Perkins, announce a series of special interview segments featuring the thought leaders and experts of New Frontier Data.

New Frontier Data is the premier data, analytics and technology firm specializing in the global cannabis industry, delivering business solutions that enable investors, operators, advertisers, brands, researchers and policy makers to assess, understand, engage and transact with the cannabis industry and its consumers. Their mission is to inform policy and commercial activity for the global legal cannabis industry.

Co-Founder of W420 Radio Network, Dan Perkins, explains, "This collaboration with New Frontier Data is highly beneficial for our listeners. Their unique standing in the cannabis industry - as the industry data, analytics and business intelligence leader - will offer key insights for market trends and growth potential."

Last week, New Frontier Data announced the new version of their software Equio[®]. It was built upon years of consumer behavior data collection and profiling combining data from a variety of sources including point-of-sale transactions and dispensary foot traffic, analyzed to produce actionable competitive intelligence.

Founder and Executive Chair of New Frontier Data, Giadha A. DeCarcer, notes, "Informing and educating operators, investors, researchers and legislators is our core mission, and we look forward to the opportunity to engage and connect with the listeners of 'America's Cannabis Conversation' continuing our commitment to providing comprehensive fact-based market reporting to industry stakeholders."
