Truly Love in a Notable Book

"That day I will never forget where I was, what I was doing. The reason Maurice won me over was that he was in Branson when he called to see if I was alright and where I was, what I was doing."

Born and raised in Savannah, Georgia, author Diane Lenamon imparts that "You have to truly love the person you are traveling with. There are a lot of ends and outs to learning, but so much fun." in her passion-clad book titled

Our Condo on Wheels: Story of a Couple Rving. This stunning journal of a couple traveling in a condo on wheels mixed with the right amount of familial love, loving again, and a glimpse of an almost picture-perfect love story makes this book a must-read.

Our Condo on Wheels: Story of a Couple Rving is quite a lifestyle in so many ways. This book shares the importance of traveling with someone you truly love — a feat that many of us should adhere to and keep in mind. Sometimes, it's the company that matters. There are a lot of ends and outs to learning, but it is so much fun.

Give this book a try, surely you will keep coming back and ask for more. The power of penning a book that you put your heart into sure does make a great piece of literature.

Diane Lenamon was born and raised in Savannah, Georgia, and is now residing in Texas. Diane graduated from high school and attended college for a year. She retired from a wonderful company back in 2002. She lost her first husband to diabetes but was blessed with five lovely children and ten grandchildren, which has given her three great-grandchildren. She remarried a wonderful man who is one of a kind, which is the one she traveled together with for eight and a half years in their RV. She deeply loves her family, life, and knowing that she is a Christian. She loves to write about life, loves to watercolor paint even though she is no professional.

Diane Lenamon also penned several books, so be sure to check it out!
