Omnicommm- Fuel and Fleet Management

Together, OMNICOMM and Dehispa (part of Walma Dynamic Group) will bring OMNICOMM's complete fuel and fleet management solution to companies involved in IoT, construction, oil and gas, mining and other industries in Spain, Portugal and countries in the Caribbean. The partnership will provide businesses of any size with highly-accurate, real-time fuel and fleet monitoring to achieve cost reductions, improve efficiency and boost safety standards.

C-level management representatives of OMNICOMM and Dehispa shook hands on the final agreement and secured the deal with signatures during OMNICOMM's team visit to Madrid, Spain. The partnership is an auspicious start to OMNICOMM's participation in Mobile World Congress 2021 (MWC21) in Barcelona, June 28th to July 1st.

Boris Pankov, CEO of OMNICOMM, says "There is an ideal match between Dehispa and OMNICOMM. Dehispa is a technology enabler for European manufacturers of highly sophisticated equipment in industry verticals such as Internet of Things (IoT), oil and gas, and construction. Jointly, we will lead the next-generation digitization of commercial assets in these industries."

"Today is an important day for Dehispa and Walma Dynamic Group," concludes Guillermo Álvarez, CEO of Walma Dynamic Group. "Following the deal signature, a strategic agreement was reached to commercialize and develop OMNICOMM solutions in Spain, Portugal and the Caribbean area."
